

North American Meetings of the Regional Science Association International (RSAI)

Denver, CO – November 10-13, 2021

Call for Papers – Special Session(s)

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion in Regional Economic Development

Session Organizer: Session Organizer: Frederick Treyz (fred@remi.com)

Description:

This session focuses on the diversity, equity and inclusion implications of regional and urban economic structures, policies, and futures.

Themes that may be addressed could include:

- Gender, racial, income, educational disparities in cities and regions;
- Spatial inequality and disparities;
- Data sources that measure demographic and socioeconomic disparities;
- Evaluation of the distributional implications of policies (tax, transportation, workforce development, environmental)
- Theoretical approaches to understanding the influence of regional economic structures on DEI.
- Urban and metropolitan land use and transportation and DEI issues.

Please submit an abstract (2,000-5000 characters, spaces) using the conference portal.

We look forward to a very stimulation session and to seeing you in Denver!

Fred