

Call for participation - XV World Conference of the Spatial Econometrics Association Tokyo, (Japan), 26th - 28th May 2021.

Due to COVID-19 outbreaks all sessions will be in a real time online format without video presentations. Your slot will be allocated considering your time zone.

Important Dates:

- Abstract submission: March 1, 2021 (300-600 words).
- Notification of acceptance: April 10, 2021
- Deadline for registration: May 20, 2021
- Deadline for full paper submission to the Special issue of the Journal of Spatial Econometrics August 1, 2021 (state it explicitly in the abstract).
- Jean Paelinck prize for young researcher, full paper by March 1, 2021

Note: Time zone of the dates above is Japan Standard Time (JST: GMT+09:00).

Plenary/Invited Speakers:

- Noel Cressie, University of Wollongong
- Jean Paul Elhorst, University of Groningen
- Alan E. Gelfand, Duke University
- Virgilio Gómez-Rubio, The University of Castilla-La Mancha
- Daniel A. Griffith, The University of Texas at Dallas

Registration Fees:

- FREE for all SEA members who pay their membership fees before March 31, 2021.
- 6,000 JPY (about 58 USD and 48 EUR) for SEA members who don't pay their membership fee for 2021.
- 7,000 JPY (about 67 USD and 56 EUR) for non-members of SEA.
- 3,000 JPY (about 29 USD and 24 EUR) for students.

Conference registration fees include:

- Annual membership to the Spatial Econometrics Association (SEA);
- Free subscription to the Journal of Spatial Econometrics ;

- Free participation to the (fully online) Spatial Econometrics

Advanced Institute (SEAI) summer school -

<https://www.spatialeconometricsassociation.org/home-advanced/>

More details at the conference webpage: <https://confit.atlas.jp/guide/event/sea2021/top>